THE SINGER CASTLE, N.Y. STATE

Off to an early start this morning as we head across the border into New York State to the pretty little waterfront town of Alexandria Bay. There we will board our boat for the tour to the castle. Singer Castle was built at the turn of the century by Commodore Bourne, president of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, as a hunting lodge. It was then sold in the 60's to be used as a religious retreat and then in 2005 it was purchased by a group of investors and opened to the public as we see it now. As well as a guided tour of this once “haunted” castle you will marvel at the scenery along the St Lawrence through the 1000 Islands. Following the 3 ¼ hour tour we will enjoy dinner on the waterfront at the Riveredge Resort in Alexandria Bay. You will need a valid Canadian Passport to join us on this tour.....all aboard.
